

Are you a Class Commuter or a Crass Commuter?

Imagine someone hobbling around on crutches, eight months pregnant or marching through life with the help of his Seeing Eye Dog.

And now imagine them on your train, standing in the aisles while you sit comfortably in a seat.

Is there something wrong with that picture? We thought so, too. Please, offer your seat to those who are more in need.

