

Are you a Class Commuter or a Crass Commuter?

Standing in line is usually a sign of good manners ... except when queuing before your stop means that someone else can't detrain. Please, wait until the train reaches your station before getting up so that you don't block the aisles and doors.

