REDUCED FARE ID CARD FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

VRE Trains and stations are designed to be accessible to persons with disabilities. VRE offers a 50% discount off the cost of our tickets to patrons with disabilities. Discounted tickets are available at the majority of our vendors, as well as by mail through Commuter Direct. Passengers must have a valid VRE Reduced Fare ID or Medicare card to purchase tickets at the discounted rate.

Regretfully, the VRE does not accept VA service-connected “disability” cards as a qualifying form of identification. The VA issues their disability cards based upon medical conditions related to service in the military. However, a large number of the medical conditions rated as “disabilities” by the VA are not considered disabilities under the FTA’s guidelines for mass transit organizations (for example, sleep apnea is often highly rated by the VA but is not considered a disability in the majority of cases).

An individual with a Medicare card may obtain a VRE Reduced Fare ID Card by completing Section A only of the application, providing a copy of the Medicare card, and a .jpg “headshot” for the new ID. See Page 5 for submitting options. Once you have obtained your VRE Reduced Fare ID card, carry it with you when you board the train. Our conductors have the right to see the qualifying ID used to purchase the discounted ticket and may issue a summons for fare evasion if no ID is available.

All other individuals requesting a VRE Reduced Fare ID will need to submit a fully completed application, including the Physician Certification and a .jpg “headshot”. Failure to print clearly or submit all needed items will delay processing of the ID.

A disabled attendant pass is available for persons needing an attendant to help them navigate the VRE system. To be eligible, the authorizing physician must answer yes to question 2 in Part C and provide a letter explaining the nature of the disability and why special assistance is needed for commuting on VRE trains. Upon receipt and verification, VRE will review the request and, if approved, create a special fare exempt pass for an attendant.

GUIDELINES FOR COMPLETING THIS APPLICATION

1. Read the entire application and complete Part A.
2. Take/forward Part B and C of the application to your health care professional for certification.
3. Health care professionals must review Part B: Guidelines for Health Care Professionals in order to make the determination whether or not completion of Part C is appropriate.
4. Submit Part A and Part C to the VRE, along with a “headshot” jpg for processing of the ID. See Page 5 for submitting options.

RENEWING VRE REDUCED FARE ID CARDS

No ID cards have longer than a 5 year expiration to ensure current information and a relatively current photo is on file. Approximately sixty (60) days before your long-term or permanent card expires, please visit our website at vre.org or contact customer service at (703-684-1001) to determine what will be needed (i.e., updated contact information and a new .jpg "headshot"). If your ID card has been expired for 30 days or more, you must complete a new application and obtain your physician's certification. If your card is considered to be "long term" (1-3 years) or "temporary" (3 mos. 6mos. 9mos. 1 year), but your disability continues, you will need to complete a new application and obtain a new physician's certification.
